Attention: Mr. James B. Stroud

Dear Mr. Stroud:

This is in response to your letter of 30 May 1991 requesting the Agency to review two FBI documents containing CIA information. Your letter indicated that these two documents were located in response to a request from the House Committee on the Judiciary which is investigating the Department of Justice's ADP practices.

The two documents you forwarded to us have been reviewed by components within the Agency and it has been determined that the CIA information contained in these documents can be released to the Committee.

Please do not hesitate to contact me on [redacted] if we can be of further assistance.

My colleagues in the Washington Metropolitan Field Office have advised me of your tremendous handling of a highly sensitive matter of mutual interest to our agencies, and I want you to know of our deep appreciation for your exceptional performance.

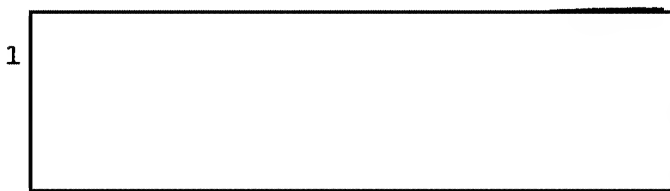

This continuing operation would not have achieved the success it has thus far without your commitment and superior case-management skills. I understand you have had to travel extensively, often on short notice and occasionally under adverse conditions, and work long hours well beyond a normal workday. You deserve high praise for your tireless efforts and loyalty in accomplishing a difficult task. I know my associates appreciate your guidance and cooperation, and we all recognize that joint operations like this are only enhanced by officers of your caliber. You have our sincere best wishes for continued success.

Sincerely yours,

William S. Sessions
